WHERE IN THE MUSEUM

Have A Go Archery will happen in the Museum Gardens. There is both steps and a paved ramp with handrails to access the gardens.

There is gravel and grass in the Gardens.

WHERE IN THE MUSEUM

You will need to go through the Activity Centre to access the Museum Gardens. The floor is all on one level. One wall is all glass with an automatic door to the Gardens.

There will be fabric banners to read and a TV with information about Magna Roman Fort.

This room will be brightly lit.

WHAT YOU WILL SEE

You will see a red tent, where you can get dressed up in Roman style helmets and a tabard that looks like Roman armour.

You do not have to get dressed up if you do not want to.

WHAT YOU WILL HEAR

You will hear people talking and the sound of arrows hitting targets. This event is outside, so you may hear the wind or the sound of the archaeological excavations.

WHAT YOU WILL TOUCH

This is a very hands-on activity. You can feel a replica Roman recurve bow and have a go at doing some archery yourself.
