WHERE IN THE MUSEUM

The Teddy Bears Picnic is in our Sensory Yurt. This is a circular building with a wooden ramp to access.

There is a wooden floor and small windows, so this can be a darker space. The roof is made of canvas, so you might here wind and rain.

The Yurt is in our Museum Gardens.

There are steps and a ramp to access our Gardens.

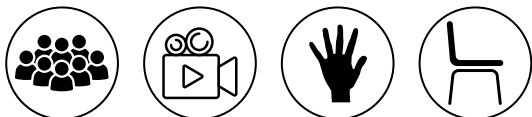

WHERE IN THE MUSEUM

You will need to go through the Activity Centre to access the Gardens & Yurt. The floor is all on one level. One wall is all glass with an automatic door to the Gardens & Yurt.

There will be information to read, a sensory projector, and weaving loom. You can interactive with activities in this room.

This room will be brightly lit.

WHAT YOU WILL SEE

You will see three large teddy bears dressed up as Roman soldiers and a Roman Emperor. You can tell the biggest teddy bear is an Emperor because they are wearing a toga.

You will see different replica food items and food dishes. Please do not try to eat any of the food, it is not real.

WHAT YOU WILL HEAR

This event is outside, so you may hear the wind or the rain.

There is a sensory basket in the yurt. You can listen to the sounds of the wheat sheaves

WHAT YOU WILL TOUCH

There is a sensory basket in the yurt. You can touch the wheat sheaves, eggs, and purple fabric. Purple was the emperor's colour, and we are at the Emperor's Picnic.
