

VINDOLANDA

CHARITABLE TRUST

Welcome to the Roman Army Museum, part of the award-winning Vindolanda Trust, offering an indoor and accessible experience of life on the northern frontier of the Roman Empire.

This is a visual story specifically for
STANDARDS: A Community
Exhibition with Zigzag Days

If you would like our visual story for the museum, please visit our accessibility page.

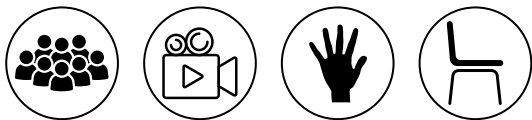

WHERE IN THE MUSEUM

To access STANDARDS, go through the Activity Centre. The floor is all on one level. One wall is all glass with automatics doors to access the exhibition.

Press the touch pad to open the automatic doors. You will find the exhibition outside in the yurt to your left.

This room will be brightly lit and have a sensory projector to interact with.

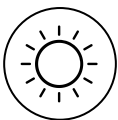

WHERE IN THE MUSEUM

STANDARDS is on display in the yurt from July - November 2026.

To access the yurt, there is a hard standing ramp with metal handrail to the left. There is also a wooden ramp into the yurt.

There is information about the exhibition on the sign outside. There is a wooden ramp into the yurt.

WHAT YOU WILL SEE

There are three windows in the yurt. On the left and right of these windows are images of people holding Standards, representing the Roman practice of bringing a standards or flag into battle. These are next to the Standards themselves.

The yurt is draped in fabric and has four standards and four images in the exhibition.
